Solver Supports Growth in Business Intelligence with Opening of an East Coast Office

ERP and Operations Professional Eric Forgo Joins Solver to Lead East Region

Solver Inc., an industry leader in Business Intelligence (“BI”) and Business Performance Management (“BPM”) solutions, today announced that Eric Forgo has joined the company as General Manager, Eastern Region with regional headquarters in Boston. The expansion is part of Solver’s drive to best serve its growing Eastern Region customer and partner base as the BI and BPM markets expand.

Eric brings a breadth of experience from senior operational and financial positions across the high technology sector. Eric was most recently with ePartners, Inc. as the Northeast Region VP of Services, a position he held for eight years. While there ePartners received multiple awards such as the Global Partner of the Year and the Customer Loyalty award from Microsoft Business Solutions. Prior to that he was the CFO of C-Bridge Internet Solutions and worked in various other Financial Management positions for software companies such as Fastech Inc. (now Brooks Automation), UCCEL (now Computer Associates), and other technology concerns. “Solver is perfectly positioned to provide timely and relevant information delivery to decision makers through the use of analytics and dashboard technologies” Forgo said. “I can’t think of a better place to be.”

"We are pleased to welcome Eric as a strong new addition to our team," said Nils Rasmussen, co-founder, Solver Inc.. "With his experience in technology and services companies combined with his strong financial and operational skills, we are confident that Eric will help us take Solver to the next level as we continue to be a leading player in the Business Intelligence market place." "With the coming release of Microsoft Performance Point Server, we expect significant growth and having an East Coast presence is integral to our success."

Eric has a Master’s degree in Business Administration from Boston University and received his Bachelor’s degree in Accounting from the University of Connecticut, Storrs.
